Thanks for a the clarification. I just hadn't heard his name before so wondered where he fit into the picture.

my boss.

The heierarchy above me is Brad Dodd, then Connie Clementson (Brad and Connie share some authorities), Then Lori Armstrong.

Here it is another way, with titles and locations:

Lori Armstrong, District Manager, Southwest District, office in Montrose

Connie Clementson, Field Office Manager, Tres Rios Field Office, office in Dolores

Brad Dodd, Associate Field Office Manager, Tres Rios Field Office, office in our satellite location in Durango

Kay Zillich, Abandoned Mine Lands specialist, office in Durango

And Brent Lewis in the State Office is the AML technical guy, and not in my chain of command (at least on paper)

Hope this is useful and does not add to the confusion.

Yes, I can make that time. I will ask Brad Dodd if he wants to be involved with this call.

All – Lets meet to discuss “goal setting” for the cleanup. I think that if we can start to put a set of goals together to present to the ARSG for a discussion at one of their monthly meetings, perhaps a “common vision” could begin to emerge. I know – I’m probably being overly optimistic but when on several recent occasions the question of what our “collective” goal was went unanswered, it seems like EPA and BLM should take the initiative to formulate something.

Brent & Kay – I don’t know your schedules so please let everyone know if this will work or suggest an alternate day/time next week. And if there is someone else in BLM that should be included please forward this invite to them.

Thanks.
